This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the “Commission”) on the request of Blonder Tongue Telephone, LLC (“Blonder Tongue” or the “Company”) to withdraw its Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services within the State of South Carolina and for flexible and alternative regulation.

By letter dated August 17, 2004, counsel for Blonder Tongue advised the Commission that Blonder Tongue seeks approval for the Company’s pending Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to be withdrawn.

Upon consideration of this matter, the Commission concludes that the request of Blonder Tongue to withdraw its Application should be granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The request of Blonder Tongue Telephone, LLC to withdraw its Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services within the State of South Carolina is granted.

2. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.
